CONGRATULATION LETTER

Respectfully addressed to Vietnam Aviation Exhibition Joint Stock Company.

In recent years, along with the consideration of the Communist Party of Vietnam and the Government, Vietnam's aviation industry has made remarkable progress in growing into one of the fastest flourishing industries in the region and worldwide. On the occasion of the collaboration between the Vietnam Aerospace Association (VASA) and the Vietnam Association of Aeronautical Science & Technology (VAAST) with Vietnam Aviation Exhibition Joint Stock Company to organize the Vietnam International Aviation Exhibition 2022 at the National Convention Center (NCC).

Assoc.Prof.Dr. Nguyen Van Cuong, Deputy Director supervisory Administration Department II Government office, would like to send greetings to your company. The Vietnam Aviation International Expo 2022 on May 10-12, 2022 is a crucial event to introduce and promote new technical and technological achievements in the aviation industry of Vietnam and global through years and to stimulate valuable conditions to develop the country's aviation engineering and technology in the forthcoming. Moreover, the program of seminars and exhibitions is an opportunity for manufacturers, the world's aviation groups, domestic and international companies to commerce, cooperate and make business trades.

It is an ovation from me, and I hope the Vietnam Aerospace Association and Vietnam Association of Aeronautical Science & Technology, and Vietnam Aviation Exhibition Joint Stock Company will have an accomplishment exhibition and invariably evolve to acquire the international standards' engineering and technology and satisfy the needs of the industry.

Sincerely!
